

Delock Cable holder for under-table mounting black 2 pcs set

Description

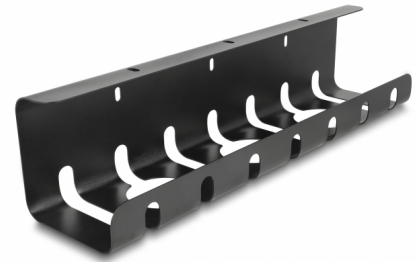

The cable holder by Delock can be used to bundle and conceal exposed cables under the desk. In addition, the cables are protected from dirt and damage.

Orderly cable management

The holder is simply placed under the desk and all cables and socket strips from the floor are neatly and safely stowed away. The desk is freed from any cable clutter and leaves a clean overall impression.

Plenty of space for different cables

The cable holder offers plenty of space to accommodate various cables such as HDMI cables, audio cables or power cables.
